EDUCATOR'S GUIDE

THIS GUIDE HAS BEEN PROVIDED BY SARENA AND SASHA NANUA FOR CLASSROOM, LIBRARY, AND READING GROUP USE. IT MAY BE REPRODUCED IN ITS ENTIRETY OR EXCERPTED FOR THESE PURPOSES.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Describe the girls' reactions to seeing their first ghost. How would you react if you saw a ghost like this in real life?
2. The Fierce Four each have different traits that make them unique. Compare each member of the team and discuss how they're similar and different from each other. Which member do you believe you're most like, and why?
3. Raveena has many memories of Grandmama that she treasures. Which memories and moments stuck out to you the most? Why do you think Raveena has such a tight bond with Grandmama and wants to communicate with her again?
4. Lillian says "we contain multitudes" (p. 91). What do you think this means? What "multitudes" do you contain?
5. Raveena starts losing track of school and friendships, but says it's worth it to help the one she loves most (p. 192). Do you agree with her and see her side of things? Why or why not?
6. The fire in 1975 had some mysterious origins. Discuss your own theories of the fire's origin. What did you think of the fire's true origin reveal?

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

7. How is the town of Hollows' Peak similar or different from your own town/city? (Refer to the map in this guide, along with descriptions in the book.)
8. Aiko and Raveena discover they have more in common than they realize. Explain the characters' connections and how they are similar and different.
9. How did the characters evolve and grow from beginning to end? Who was your favorite and why?
10. At the end, the girls realize a level three ghost needs help overcoming past traumas by facing them head-on. Reflect on a past moment where you faced a problem and how you were able to solve it.
11. The importance of community plays a large role in the story, from family to friends to Guardian guidance counselors. List some of the members of your community and how they play a role in your life.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. In Twice the Trouble, the girls celebrate their own "Halloween" traditions through the town rivalry. What Halloween traditions do you celebrate with your family or community? List them out and compare with a friend/classmate.
2. In chapter 3, we meet Jeremy, Teddy, and Creeker. What was your first impression of the Phantom Fighters? Why do you think Mateo trusts them and regards them so highly since he moved to Rosemary Heights?
3. Compare the towns of Hollows' Peak and Rosemary Heights. What do they have in common? What differences do they have?
4. While reading Twice the Trouble, where did you think the second rotary phone came from? Why do you think it had a "darker" ability compared to the first phone, and were your hunches correct?
5. In the book, the ghost of Marian Fairchild is called "the Wailing Woman in White," crying for her lost child. What attributes did the townspeople give her? Why do you think they painted her in a scary light, and what struggles did she face in her life?

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

6. The Fairchild family was originally known to hold anti-paranormal beliefs, which Marian had internalized and believed herself. Think of a moment where your own internalized beliefs have been challenged or changed in your life.
7. Raveena believes Mateo can only have one friend group and that Jeremy and the rest of the Phantom Fighters have bad intentions. Did you agree with her? At what point in the book does Raveena start to change her mind?
8. Donna Seer and Tía Paola have a strained relationship dating back to a "missing" crystal ball in '06. Describe how their relationship evolved by the end. Have you ever had to step in and fix a problem with a friend? How?
9. Elijah Hollow is a mysterious figure who wants to merge the lands of the living and the dead. Did you expect him to be an important character? Did you anticipate the reveal of the rose robber, and what clues might have led you there looking back?
10. At El Grillo, the girls and boys celebrate Día de los Muertos, the Day of the Dead. Explain a moment where you honored a loved one. If you could make your own ofrenda, what would you put on it?
